Use Warp

For banner fonts, I like the warp font's skinnyness to give a crisp and professional feel, but I also want to integrate a bit of lumberjanes-esque boldness

Going to copy this style of bolding for topic names, popup thing for whether a point has a card

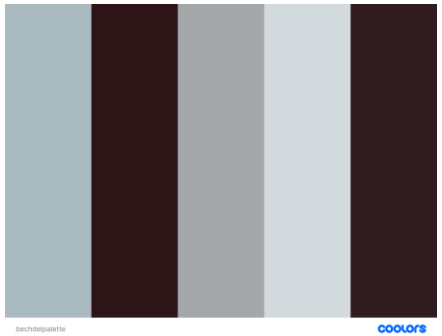

Going to take the font of the bottom for point text, copy calmtechnology's tasteful and not attention-grabbing hover for tabs

Picked the website palette from 'Fun Home' by Bechdel. Originally considered more slates like below, chalkboard-esque aesthetics, but was drawn by the muted tones of the comic and wanted that reflected in the app.
